

Selected C.V.

M.Hossein Mahallati
President
Iris International Group, LLC
New York, NY

Work Experience:

a) Business Management

Founder/Director/Executive Officer Several Companies in various capacities/responsibilities as follows:

- Business Development Consultant, Joint Ventures, Investment Banking
- Managed a Real Estate holding company with over $15 million assets.
- Developed major international joint business proposals involving several Forbes 500 firms including; Arco, Trammel Crow, Morgan Stanley, G.E., Chrysler, Bankers Trust, Enron, Halliburton, Qualcomm, Etc.
- Facilitated executive meetings with dignitaries and promotional businessman, sponsored seminars and international conferences both in the U.S. and abroad focusing on investment opportunities
- Provided consulting services in contract negotiations, project financing and joint ventures.
- Instrumental in many multimillion dollar projects including; power plants, automobile assembly lines, wireless telecommunications and petrochemical production lines.
- Agency/Representative relations with Johnson & Johnson, Samsonite, Case International.
- Developed, financed and transacted export of 40,000 tons of poultry products.
- Executive responsibilities for running $150 million assets.

b) Educational/Cultural/Philanthropic

- Founder of a Network of 300 Physicians throughout the U.S. providing advisory medical services to the needy as well as playing major roles providing relief for victims in the event of natural disasters such as earthquake and floods. Additionally, the foundation sponsors various philanthropic projects abroad including building schools and student dormitories and donating medical equipment to local hospitals and clinics in the remote rural areas.
- Initiated the largest non governmental chain of donated emergency airlifts to help the victims of 2004 Bam earthquake including a 747 cargo form L.A and N.Y and a 707 form Baku .
- Founding member of a Television/Video Production Company producing a weekly ethnic program for various local/cable television channels including WNYC, International Channel.
- Sponsored scholarships and grants programs for university students throughout the U.S.
- Founding member of Pre k-12 Chartered Parochial School in Queens NY with over 450 students from 12 countries since 1995.
- Founding member of Weekend schools dedicated to providing American - Iranian children with Persian language and teachings on their cultural heritage.

Personal Data:

- Born: August 20, 1957, Shiraz, Iran
- Married with two Children
- Resident of Westchester, New York since 1983

Education

- 1985 Studied at New School for Social Research, Master of Art Program, International Relations with emphasis on International Law.
- 1983 California State University, M.S., Electrical Engineering and Control Systems.
- 1980 University of Kansas, B.S., Electrical Engineering and Computer Engineering.